

Abstract

Praise be to God alone and peace and blessings be upon our Prophet Muhammad and his family and companions

Hereafter- :

God (Allah) has honored me by researching the subject (Formulas of Commons in the great Sunnah of Imam al-Bayhaqi (458 H). studied has started from the beginning of chapter that has entitled by :( the invitee sees in the place where he is called pictures installed with spirits does not enter) until the end of Chapter entitled with :( What came in the bathroom), and has been studied thanks to God (Allah).

As for the introduction: included the importance of the topic and the reasons for its selection and previous studies and the methodology used in the research.

As for the preamble: it included the definition of Imam al-Bayhaqi and his era and his book Sunan al-Kabir.

As for the two sections:

it included the first section, which includes the basic study in explaining the meaning of the general and its forms, and the special and its types, and the second section and it includes the applied study, and the general and specific formulas were extracted from the hadiths.

Conclusion: I mentioned the most important findings and recommendations

May Allah bless and bestow peace upon our Prophet Muhammad and his family and disciples.

Musa Salem Allqmani