

Abstract

Title: The Deduced Educational Implications from the expression of 'Glory' in the Holy Quran

Prepared by: Jaber Majdoua M. Aloryani

Objectives of the study: the current study aimed to identify the educational implications inferred or deduced from the expression 'Glory' in the Holy Quran

Study Approach: Deductive Reasoning Approach

The Study consists of six chapters, as follow:

Chapter One: the General frame of the study.

Chapter Two: the Glory in the Holy Quran.

Chapter Three: the Educational basis deduced from the expression 'Glory' in the Holy Quran.

Chapter Four: the Educational Principles deduced from the expression 'Glory' in the holy Quran.

Chapter Five: the Educational Values deduced from the expression 'Glory' in the holy Quran.

Chapter Six: Educational Styles deduced from the expression 'Glory' in the Holy Quran.

The Study has resulted in:

- 1- The verses contained the expression of 'Glory' in the Holy Quran with different purposes is indeed a great source of Education, as they contained educational implications which lead to Light and Guidance.
- 2- The verses which contained the expression of 'Glory' in the Holy Quran have a number of educational basis, principles, and values Islam urges to have them.
- 3- The verses of the expression 'Glory' in the Holy Quran has indicated the true meaning of Monotheism, which is one of the most important things through which a person can gain the 'Glory' in this life.
- 4- The verses of the expression 'Glory' in the Holy Quran has indicated that the Almighty God (Allah) is the only provider of 'Glory' and no one else, and He is the only one who should be asked to grant it.

Recommendations:

- 1 - The instructor should care of the book of Allah (Holy Quran) from all sides; memorizing, reciting, and contemplating it. And it should be the way to follow while instructing.
- 2 - All instructors in official and non-official institutions should care about the expressions the Holy Quran contained, and contemplating them to reach to Quran goals of these expressions particularly, the expression 'Glory'