

Message summary

Praise be to Allaah. The strong strong, the prayers and peace be upon the faithful Prophet, his family and companions and those who followed them in charity to the Day of Judgment. 1190 AH) is a unique manuscript rich in the great benefits of readings of the ten path of Shatabiyah and Aldra and Taibe and the Book of the Etaph, and readings gay, and the student science specialist in the readings of literature, skills and benefits, which said that we find a book like him combines K For the above. This part has been divided into (120) tablets: from the first book to the end of the first destination: in the difference of the seven imams - may God have mercy on them -, into two parts: 1 - Department of study. 2. Investigation Section. The first section consists of an introduction, a preface and two chapters, as follows: Introduction: The reasons for the choice of the subject, its importance, and the research plan. Preface: In it: the Turkish school in the readings and classes of readers. Chapter I: Study of the author and his era, in which two sections: The first topic: a brief overview of the author's era, the second topic: the author's translation, which includes seven demands: First: his name and proportions, and surname. The third: his elders and his disciples. Fourth: Asayneh. Fifth: its effects and scientific status. Sixth: his doctrine, and doctrine of jurisprudence. Seventh: His death. Chapter II: Study of the book, and seven topics: The first topic: To achieve the title of the book and document the percentage of the author, the second topic: the definition of the book, and the author's approach, and there are three demands: First: the subject of the book. Second: The purpose of its authorship. Third: the author's approach in his book. The third topic: The sources of the author in his book, the fourth topic: the value of the scientific book, the fifth topic: the implications of the book the sixth topic: the description of the written versions and the presentation of models thereof, the seventh topic: the method of investigation. The second section includes the achievement of the text of the book and then the conclusion: The most important findings and recommendations, followed by various scientific indexes. One of the findings reached at the end of the research: 1 - the men of the Turkish school their influence is obvious, is not without reference in the science of readings often mention, but many of them remained among the Almgmroen. 2 - The adoption of the author - God mercy - in his book on mothers of scientific books, both in the readings or science, which gave the book of great importance. 3 - The author Mohammed al-Darandawi was a regular teacher, and was a prolific reader of the travel to receive the evidence. This is the prayer of God to our Prophet Muhammad and his family and companions and peace, and thank God the Lord of the .Worlds

Student: Rawda Ibrahim Flata Supervisor: Dr.: Mohamed Salama Rabie