

Abstract

Praise be to Allah, and peace and blessings be upon the our prophet Mohammed, his household, companions and upon those who follow them in googness till the day of judgment .

This academic thesis examines the significance of the need among the interpreters, in Sur: Al-Fatiha, Al-Baqarah, and Al-Imran.

It divided the research into an introduction, two sections, a conclusion, and indexes, and its statement is as follows:

First: the introduction; it includes: openness, the research problem, its importance, goals, limits, previous studies, research methodology, procedures, and plan.

The first section: Theoretical study: It includes three topics:

The first topic: semantics, given the situation, its definition and its types.

The second topic: Significance of necessity: its definition, its divisions, pillars and arguments.

The third topic : Significant belongings.

The second section: The applied study: from the beginning of Surat Al-Fatihah to the end of the Imran family.

The first topic: Indications of necessity in Surat Al-Fatihah.

The second topic: indications of necessity in Surat Al-Baqara.

The third topic: the implications of necessity in Surat Al-Imran.

The total of issues in this section (56 issues):

Conclusion: It contains the most important findings and recommendations.

Then; indexes.

Researcher:

Mohammed bin Ali Al-Ghamdi .

Supervisor of the thesis:

Prof. Dr. Abdullah bin Salem Bafrej

Dean of the College of Sharia and Islamic Studies :

Dr. Raid bin Khalaf Al-Osaimi.